CIVIL COURTS. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT-IN BANKRUPTCY.

POSITIONS IN BANKRUPTCY were filed by the following: James Williams, and Nathaniel W. Curtis, both of this city.

OPINIONS OF PETITION AND SCHEDULES. "The Hints to Practitioners," recently published, would make it appear that the petitioner must necessarily prepare and schedule. Rule 4 of the Rules and Orders of the District Court for this District provides that the petition and schedule must be prepared and filed and certified by the Clerk under the seal of the Court.

SUPREME COURT-CHAMBERS-Before Mr. Justice LEONARD. THE LAURENCE THEATRE DISPUTE.

In this case, several persons, Mr. J. Duff was declared, a mortgage in possession of the lease of the Olympic Theatre, formerly known as the Theatre Royal, and the amount still due to Mr. Duff. A motion was made on the part of the plaintiff to have a receiver appointed to collect the rents and profits of the theatre during the account being referred to, and to lease the theatre.

The motion is based on a claim that Duff has been fully paid for the property, and that the defendant has been completely exonerated from all liability for the amount of the mortgage, and allowed him a large sum for his management of the property.
